The report must be accompanied by documents and dossier explaining the resolution of the Board of Directors on bond issuance. Article 37. Rights and obligations of the Board of Directors The rights and obligations of the Board of Directors are prescribed by law, the Charter, the internal regulations of the Company and the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations: e) Decide the price and time of offering bonds, stocks and other convertible securities of the Company;	Article 13. Other securities certificates 4. The Board of Directors is responsible for appraising, evaluating and deciding issues and contents related to the issuance of Bonds and other securities certificates, making information disclosure and reporting to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the nearest meeting on issuances in accordance with the law and SHS's internal regulations. Article 37. Rights and obligations of the Board of Directors The rights and obligations of the Board of Directors are prescribed by law, the Charter, the internal regulations of the Company and the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations: e) Appraise, evaluate and decide on issues and contents related to the issuance of Bonds and other securities certificates, stocks and other convertible securities of the Company.;	The wording is more detailed and consistent with the Law on Enterprises to avoid causing conflicts in interpretation

2.	Specific regulations on the authority and obligations of the Board of Directors	Article 32. Authority and procedure to collect written opinions of Shareholders to pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders 1. The Board of Directors has the right to collect opinions of Shareholders in written form to pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders at any time if it deems it is necessary for the benefit of the Company, except for the case specified in Clause 2 Article 147 of Law on Enterprises.	Article 32. Authority and procedure to collect written opinions of Shareholders to pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders 1. The Board of Directors has the right to collect opinions of Shareholders in written form to pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders at any time if it deems it is necessary for the benefit of the Company.	The wording is consistent with the Law on Enterprises to avoid causing conflicts in interpretation
3.		Point w, Clause 2, Article 37 – Approval of the contracts and transactions of the Company as prescribed in Clause 3, Article 69 of this Charter;	Point w, Clause 2, Article 37 – Approval of the contracts and transactions of the Company as prescribed in Clause 3, Article 68 of this Charter;	Misrepresentation of terms and correction
4.		Point f, Clause 2, Article 37 - Decide to repurchase shares (except for cases where the repurchase falls under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the General Director) or to withdraw shares, purchase price or withdraw shares according to the provisions of this Charter and relevant provisions of law;	Point f, Clause 2, Article 37 - Decide to repurchase shares (except for cases where the repurchase falls under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders ~~and the General Director~~) or to withdraw shares, purchase price or withdraw shares according to the provisions of this Charter and relevant provisions of law;	The principle of allocating rights is the General Meeting of Shareholders, then the Board of Directors, and finally the CEO, so it is necessary to clearly define the blocking level at the Board of Directors if necessary, the rest is the general director's rights.

5.		Point X, Clause 2, Article 37: To the extent specified in Clauses 1 and 3, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises, which must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors from time to time decides on the implementation, amendment and cancellation of major contracts and transactions of the Company (including contracts and transaction of purchase, sale, merger, acquisition and joint ventures)	Point X, Clause 2, Article 37: For contracts and transactions under the approval authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clauses 1 and 3, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors from time to time decides on the implementation, amendment and cancellation of major contracts and transactions of the Company (including contracts and transaction of purchase, sale, merger, acquisition and joint ventures)	The wording is more detailed and consistent with the Law on Enterprises to avoid causing conflicts in interpretation
6.	Point b, Clause 9, Article 53	Decide all issues related to daily operations of the Company without the need for a Resolution of the Board of Directors.
